Prince Hotel introduces the way to experience wonderful summer in Japan

Prince Hotels & Resorts, the leading chain hotel in Japan, has hotels and entertainment facilities throughout Japan. From this year, it offers plans that allow visitors from overseas to experience the wonderful summer which is unique to Japan.

One of the most popular plans is at “Grand Prince Hotel Kyoto” where you will be introduced a plan “The riverbed evening, enjoying the cool at Kibune, the inner room of Kyoto”. With this plan, you will enjoy a savory Kaiseki cuisine (a traditional multi-course Japanese meal) at the riverbed set just above a clear stream at “Kibune”, the place called the inner room of Kyoto. It is a very unique experience of enjoying the cool of the Japanese tradition, which you fully enjoy Kyoto cuisine while listening to the babbling of the river. This plan is offered in special limited time only in summer until 27th September 2017.

Not only appreciate with the unique experience, but guest who stay at Grand Prince Hotel Kyoto, can enjoy the impression of Kyoto such as spacious rooms, beautiful Japanese gardens in each season and a tea-ceremony room which wall built in Sukiya style. And all rooms were renewed and reopened sequentially. For more information, please see at <http://www.princehotels.com/kyoto/>.
